

Terms and conditions

1. Date and time: The Everything Country Outdoor Market (ECOM) spring 2019 sale shall be held on Saturday, May 4, 2019, from 9:00 am – 4:00 pm.

2. Set up: Vendors should be prepared to begin selling by 8:30 am and are to remain at the sale until closing at 4:00 pm unless sold out. Set up times are Friday, May 3, 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm and Saturday, May 4, 7:00 am – 8:45 am. Vendors may drive to their booth space to unload and vehicles must be moved to the vendor parking area immediately after unloading. No vehicles are permitted on the sale grounds between 8:45 am – 4:00 pm.

3. Registration confirmation: Approved vendors shall pay their booth fees in full to secure their booking. No booths will be held for vendors until these fees are received in full. Payment for booth spaces shall be sent in only after an application has been approved.

4. Responsibility to review: Vendors shall review their booking to understand what is provided with each booth space. ECOM and its members shall not be held responsible to provide tables, tents, or any other items unless booked, approved, and paid for in advance of the sale date.

5. Prohibited items: The following items shall not be sold at ECOM sales: firearms, explosives, illegal or illicit goods, items of an expressly sexual or adult nature, banned or controlled substances, alcohol, tobacco or tobacco products, drugs, prescription pharmaceuticals, or any other item deemed unsuitable by ECOM organizers.

6. Release of liability: Vendors shall attend ECOM and use its facilities at their own risk. Vendors shall assume all responsibility for their personal care, well-being and security at all times while on ECOM premises. Vendors shall assume all responsibility for the use or misuse, handling, and security of all items brought to the sale until such items are sold. Organizers, associates and any other person connected with ECOM shall not be held responsible, in full or in part, of any item being lost, damaged, stolen, used, or misused in any manner. Nor shall they be responsible for any damage or injury that may occur to person or property.

7. Respect of privacy: The ECOM premises are primarily a private residence and are open to vendors and the public only during the sale date and times as stated in conditions one (1) and two (2). Vendors shall respect the privacy of ECOM land owners and shall refrain from visiting, or making any type of use of, the land outside the noted times without explicit consent from ECOM organizers.

8. Food health compliance: All vendors selling food items shall comply with Public Health regulations. These regulations include submission of additional food forms beyond the standard registration form. Food forms must be submitted at least 3 weeks before the sale date. ECOM and its members will not be held responsible for any misconduct or failure of vendors to meet such requirements.

9. Right to grant booths: ECOM organizers reserve the right to grant booths at their sole discretion. Failure to meet sale specifications, previous misconduct, absence without notice, and any other conduct deemed unfitting for ECOM sales may be grounds for denying future registrations.

10. Cancellations: Cancellation notices received a minimum of 72 hours before the sale date shall receive half their fees refunded. Cancellations received less than 72 hours before the sale date shall receive no refund.

11. Compliance: All vendors shall comply with these terms and conditions. Failure to comply with these terms and conditions may warrant denial of future registrations and/or barring from ECOM participation.

12. Responsibility for clarity: Vendors shall be responsible to ensure full understanding of the above terms and conditions. ECOM and its members will not be held responsible for any assumptions or miscommunication made by vendors. For clarification of any items in these conditions, on the registration form, or any other questions, contact us.
